It shall serve as the voice of member pathologists to the Board of Governors, College Councils, Commissions, and Committees. The House of Delegates shall solicit issues from the membership through Delegation Chairs, provide a forum to deliberate the issues, and send reports on the issues (action items) to the Board of Governors, College Councils, Commissions, and Committees. It shall receive reports of the activities of the Board of Governors, College Councils, Commissions, Committees and Action Groups, including reports on issues (action items) sent to the above groups. The House will report to the Board of Governors, College Councils, Commissions, Committees and Action Groups the effectiveness of these activities in meeting member needs. The House may initiate its own business and assume such other responsibilities as may be assigned by provisions in the Bylaws.

Article II - Membership

Section I: Requirement for membership and terms of office

- (a) The House of Delegates shall be composed of Fellows of the College, elected, or appointed.
- (b) The election of Delegates shall be conducted every third year.

Delegates shall represent only their federal service or the geographic entity of their principal office or residence. Upon removal of the Delegate's principal office and/or residence to another state, district, territory, commonwealth or province, or separation from the federal service, the term shall be forfeited.
- (d) Upon vacancy due to death, retirement, resignation, move from the area represented or separation from active federal service, the Speaker shall appoint a successor fulfilling the above requirements to complete the term.

Section 2: Apportionment

- (a) The Chief Executive Officer will conduct an annual census on January 1, of the number of Fellows of the College of American Pathologists in each state, district, territory, commonwealth, or province. The results of this census shall be certified to the Speaker and to the Secretary.

Each federal service shall be represented by two Delegates. States, districts, territories, commonwealths, or provinces with more than one Delegate may divide themselves into geographic areas with each Delegate elected to represent an area. Where there are a large number of members in a designated area, it may be necessary to have more than one Delegate represent that area. Section 4: Nominations

- (a) All Fellows of the College in good standing shall have the opportunity to nominate themselves for election as a Delegate.
- (b) A list of all self-nominated Fellows from each geographic area will be forwarded to the pathology society of the appropriate state, district, territory, commonwealth, or province for their endorsement of the candidate(s). If a state, district, territory, commonwealth, or province is represented by more than one organized pathology society, each society may submit their endorsement. These societies may nominate additional candidates for election as a Delegate. Upon completion of membership requirements, the candidate will be considered for election as a Delegate. Any society not responding by the published deadline may lose its opportunity to endorse candidates.
